

I live out in the middle of nowhere in New Mexico. I travel 125 to 150 miles back and forth to Albuquerque and El Paso. I have been anxiously awaiting for XM Radio to carry traffic and weather for these two cities as I have no other means to get the local conditions. Limiting XM Radio from providing these services is unfair and a hinderance to the public. XM Radio is my only source of radio communication with the outside world.